This is one of those seasons in the year when our calendar starts to get crowded with good opportunities. We are the church of Christ—the church he promised to build (Matt. 16:18-19), the one he bought with his blood (Acts 20:28), and the people whom he is beautifying to spend eternity with him (Eph. 5:25-27). Yet, getting together every day like the church did at first is a challenge to us today (Acts 2:46-47). Can we do it for one week? Yes, we can!

Two years ago we shared in a Gospel Meeting on the Move with sister congregations in the area, and it was a refreshing experience. Our singing was powerful as the pews were packed. We paid special attention to the message that birthed the church in Acts 2. We renewed friendships and even found out that we had faith in common with people who were only acquaintances from work, school, or elsewhere.

Another Gospel Meeting on the Move is fast approaching: Monday-Thursday, March 30-April 2. Our aim is not merely to replicate the last one, but to outdo it with more Christians present and encouraged and more friends and family invited to hear the gospel and witness the joy of the Lord's church. Will you be there every night? Will you invite someone to come with you?

It will start at 7:00 each night. The theme is "Jesus: Good News, Four Views." Matthew, Mark, Luke and John all tell the same true story of Jesus, but each book has its own thrust that makes him more impressive and more endearing. Monday night at Seneca I'll address "Jesus According to Matthew." Tuesday night at Carthage Jake King will focus on "Jesus According to Mark." Wednesday night at Hillcrest Richard Chambers will focus on "Jesus According to Luke." And John Johnson will complete the picture Thursday night in Joplin with "Jesus According to John."

Will you start making plans to dedicate these days to glorifying God, building up the church, reaching lost people, and strengthening your own soul in this way? Meet us there, or ride the bus from our parking lot to each of the out of town sessions. Start praying now that we will accomplish everything God would like with this exciting endeavor.

If you know someone who needs help, please contact Jennifer Daniels or Natalie McInturff.

Devo and Donuts is every Tuesday morning at 7:00 in the activities center. Come and start your day with a devotional to God. Bring a friend!

Sunday evening discussion questions are on the welcome desk. They are also available in class on Sunday evening.

We have more books, "The Church of Christ", by Tim Alsup available on the welcome desk. Pick up a copy for a friend and invite them to join us. Only three more Sunday nights are left in our study.

Ladies' Seminar with Debbie Dupuy is this Friday and Saturday. We hope all our ladies will join us and invite your friends and neighbors. Debbie will be speaking on "The Shepherd's Daughter".

The family of Fred Bukowich is celebrating his 90th birthday with a special "come and go" party this Sunday from 3:00-5:00 in the fellowship room. Gospel Meeting on the Move will be March 30 - April 2. Mark your calendar for this great outreach event that we will share with the churches of Christ in Carthage, Joplin and Seneca. There are flyers on the welcome desk with the details.
