“This is the day that the LORD has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it” (Psalm 118:24). Every day—even a hard one—is a day to rejoice that God made you, that he made another day for you, and that he makes you the object of his care. Every Sunday is a day of special joy. It’s the Lord’s Day and a day of reunion for the Lord’s family. And this week it’s the kick off to four great days in a row!

We’re getting together three times today and at 7:00 tomorrow through Wednesday to emphasize the good news of Jesus Christ. You won’t hear anything better or more helpful this week (or ever). It’s worth sharing with friends and family, so invite them join us in person or online!

Take a closer look at the placement of that call to praise in Psalm 118:24...“The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. This is the LORD’S doing; it is marvellous in our eyes. This is the day that the LORD has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it” (Psalm 118:22-24). The stone hadn’t become the cornerstone yet when the Psalmist wrote the words or when Isaiah paralleled them in Isaiah 28:16. Jesus’ time on earth was still more than 700 years in the future. But God’s plan was sure. Now we “believe in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification” (Romans 4:25). When Jesus died and rose from the dead, he became our cornerstone. Read Matthew 21:42, Mark 12:10-11, Luke 20:17, Acts 4:11, Ephesians 2:20 and 1 Peter

2:4-7 to see Jesus and the apostles proclaiming him as the fulfilment to the prophecy in Psalms. Christ is the cornerstone of his church and of marvellous life now and forever.

We’re so glad Tim Lewis is with us to preach the gospel this week. Tim is a graduate of Oklahoma Christian University. He graduated in 1993 with a degree in English Education and obtained his Master's Degree in Ministry in 1998. He served as the Preacher / Youth Minister for the Mt. Vernon church of Christ in Mt. Vernon, Missouri for 8 years before moving to Oklahoma City to begin his work with the North MacArthur congregation in 2004. He has written a book entitled, The Domino Effect: Changing Your Life One Decision at a Time. Tim and his wife, Tawni, have two daughters, Macy and Callie, and one son Ryder.

Lads 2 Leaders,

What a delight to see all of you when you came to sing for us! You made us proud to see how well you led your songs and we enjoyed every minute of it. Those who could watch from their windows were impressed with the group. Thanks to the adults who work with these young people- they are the church of tomorrow! We miss being at services, over a year now, so couldn't believe how much those young ones had grown. We are proud of our pansy planter you gave us and think of you as we watch it grow. Come again!!

*In Christ,
Fred and Carolyn Bukowich*

Thanks to all for the gift given to our family. We really appreciate the kindness you have shown.

The Shipman Family

I wish I had the words to express what is in my heart. Thank you for the loving hugs, the visits while Rick was in the hospital, the continuing prayers, the food, those who brought it to the house and those cooking and serving the family after the service. John, Danny and Casey; thank you from the bottom of my heart for the wonderful service, the memories shared and the singing. Thank you to all,

The Rick Hyder Family
