Perhaps the most well-known adulterer in history is King David. When the prophet Nathan rebuked David, the sinful king's eyes were opened to the devastation of sin. In Psalm 51, we read David's deep regret.

Psalm 51:1-3, 10-12.

[1] Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love; according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions. [2] Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin! [3] For I know my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me.

[10] Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me. [11] Cast me not away from your presence, and take not your Holy Spirit from me. [12] Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and uphold me with a willing spirit.

David exemplifies the kind of sorrow that God desires of all sinners. "For godly grief produces a repentance that leads to salvation without regret..." (2 Corinthians 7:10)

In his commentary on Psalm 51, Eddie Cloer highlights five ways that godly grief can assist us in our journey back to God.

- It declares loudly, "My sins are first against God and second against man."
- It constrains me to say, "My sin exists because of choices I have made."
- It convinces me that, "my sin from any viewpoint cannot be excuses."
- It recognizes that "I cannot remove sin's stain and guilt."
- It understands that "my sin will not just go away on its own with the passing of time or with my moving to a new location."

When I sin, may I grieve as David did, and may I repent. If I am blind to my sin, may God send someone to open my eyes (2 Samuel 12). Then may I be transformed by God so that I can lead others to him. Praise God who saved my soul!

Psalm 51:13-15.

[13] Then I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will return to you. [14] Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, O God of my salvation, and my tongue will sing aloud of your righteousness. [15] O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare your praise.

- Ginger Murray had surgery on Monday.
- Cora Hofer had a hip replacement on Tuesday.
- Coral Haggard had a medical procedure done this week.
- Aaron Matthews, father of Kelsie and Peyton, will have surgery on Tuesday due to his work accident.

Every "One" Counts: When you give an extra dollar each Sunday, it goes to help someone in need. This week we helped a single mom whose daughter just returned home after two months in the hospital with Covid. If you know someone who needs help, please contact Jennifer Daniels or Natalie McInturff.

Devo and Donuts meets every Tuesday at 7:00 in the activities center. Start your day in a positive way and invite your friends to join you.

If you are not able to be at church, continue to visit our Facebook page, website or YouTube channel to see or hear our services online. Services will be at 10:00 am and 6:00 pm on Sundays and 7:00 pm on Wednesdays.

We will take a break from reading our Ten Commandments devo book this week. We will start the next week on Commandment eight.

Today's Sermons

A.M. You Shall Not Commit Adultery
(Ex. 20:14, Danny Boggs)

P.M. You Shall Not Commit Adultery
(Discussion Groups)

There are study questions on the welcome desk for tonight's discussion if you would like to pick them up early. They will also be available in the rooms this evening. Come ready to be part of the discussion.

There will be no ladies' class on Thursday since we are taking a break from the Ten Commandment study for a week.

Thursday is Men's BBQ night. Meet in the parking lot at 6:00 for a trip to Hog Tide BBQ in Aurora.

Ladies' Retreat will be November 5-7. It is a wonderful weekend with your Christian sisters. Please pick up a registration form from the welcome desk and return it to the office as soon as possible.

Save this weekend: Youth Retreat for grades 7-12 will be November 12-14.

Our Grief Seminar with Ron and Don Williams begins Saturday morning. They will share very practical information and techniques that can be used if you or someone you know is in grief. Come and be a part of this special weekend. Nursery will be provided.

Our schedule for next Sunday will be a little different. Classes and worship services will be at the regular time but will be led by Ron and Don Williams. After services, we will have a potluck lunch in the activities center. (Don't forget to bring food for the potluck.) At 1:00 we will meet back in the auditorium for our last session of the Grief Seminar. This will serve as our evening worship.

Our Fall Carnival will be from 5:30-7:00 pm in the activity center. It will be a fun, safe activity for our children and their friends in the community. There will be snacks, drinks, games, and prizes. If you would like to contribute to this event, bring some cookies or a bag of candy and leave it in the activities center Sunday morning.

There will be a Halloween party for the young'ish/middle'ish adults this Saturday at the home of Tony and Heather Flint. Your children are also welcome. Bring food to share and be sure to wear your best costume. Please RSVP to Heather Flint or Molly Cobb.

Lads 2 Leaders: the Bible Bowl study question notebooks are available and can be picked up at the welcome desk. Begin studying the book of Joshua. We will have a practice session soon!
