Why do we put so much emphasis on learning the Bible here? Because “without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him” (Heb. 11:6). God is real, and he wants people to be near to him. What does Bible study have to do with it? “So faith comes through hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ” (Rom. 10:17). Education in God’s Word is one of many good reasons we get together for Bible classes at 9 a.m. every Sunday and 7 p.m. every Wednesday. Here are the faith-building offerings you can expect for you and your kids in December, January and February...

We rejoice with the angels in heaven over the baptisms of two of our young ladies recently. Wendy Bertram was baptized Sunday, Nov. 14, on the youth retreat. She is the sister of Bethany Boggs and visits with us frequently. Kelsi Rogers was immersed Wednesday, Nov. 17. She is the daughter of Daniel and Jessica Rogers. Encourage these two as they begin their new life dedicated to Christ.

Every "One" Counts: When you give an extra dollar each Sunday, it goes to help someone in need. This week we helped a young man whose house burned and whose father is in the hospital. If you know someone who needs help, contact Jennifer Daniels or Natalie McInturff.

Students of all ages are invited to Devo and Donuts every Tuesday morning at 7:00 in the activities center. Come and bring a friend!

Lads 2 Leaders practice Bible Bowl is tonight after services. If you haven't picked up your study question notebook, they are available at the welcome desk. Adults, study Joshua 1-5 and join the kids in some friendly competition to practice their skills.
